

If you produce hand-made items or items that are environmentally-friendly, or if you are a musician, a writer or poet you can find a home on the ReEnchant Planet Earth shopping cart. We welcome children, teens and adults.

Greetings, Hola, Guten Tag, Bonjour, Ni hao and Ciao:

Re-Enchant Planet Earth—www.reenchantplanetearth.com—is thrilled to introduce its one-of-a-kind electronic shopping cart as a model for fair trade that supports a more humane economy. This is an invitation for you to join us on this exciting adventure. Here are additional details about what you can find:

- Re-Enchant Planet Earth's philosophy centers on building relationships between people, creating a global community where every person can live safely, securely, and passionately as well as in awe and wonder of the world around him/her.
- Our shopping cart—www.reenchantplanetearth.com/shopcart.html—is created to ensure that each sale provides a fair and equitable profit to the artist and service provider and all involved parties. Everyone benefits. Everyone is treated with fairness and respect.
- Sellers can expect business support and services, coaching as well as personal contact with ReEnchant Planet Earth.
- As part of our philosophy, we are offering a fund called Pay It Forward from which contributing ReEnchant businesses, as well as individuals in need may request an operating, business or education loan.

Whether you're a new or seasoned business entrepreneur, we would like to discuss this exciting opportunity with you. Let's schedule some time to talk further. Please feel free to contact either of us using the information below.
